I have the honour to submit herewith a copy of docket no 34, dated 2nd Septem

1903, together with copies of a communicat

and

and statement of Profit and loss from the Assistant Commissioner, Shimoga Excise Division, from which it will be seen that the petitioner suffered no loss. Under the terms of his contract the petitioner is not entitled to any compensation or remission

2 It is true the statement shows a loss of about Rs 700/- during the year 1901-02 and 1902-03 But the department cannot recognise it - as the short consumption must be due to petitioner not working the shop with energy, as he should have done. Experience elsewhere has shown that plague far from dissuading people to drink, has been persuading drunk - rightly or wrongly as a preventive. In large towns particularly during prayer the shops have been more busy than usual If the vendor had kept his supply full full and shop accessible as others did, he need not have suffered any loss

3. The petition is herewith returned

I have the honour to be,
